Eleventh European Workshop on Applied Cultural Economics

September 4-6, 2024

University of Valladolid
Segovia Campus
(Segovia, Spain)

THE PROGRAMME

The European Workshop on Applied Cultural Economics (EWACE) was founded in 2003, with the first edition taking place in San Leo, North of Italy. The Workshop is intended to provide a forum for the development and dissemination of applications of quantitative methods in cultural economics, including applications of mathematical economics, experimental economics and other quantitative approaches (e.g., applied micro and macroeconomic approaches). Authors are welcome to submit papers on applied cultural economics. The following topics illustrate possible subjects of the papers: industrial organization of cultural products and services (e.g. pricing, trade), labour market issues of artists (e.g. wages, migration cultural participation), spillovers and externalities of firms in the cultural sector (e.g. agglomeration), pricing of art items, economic history of art and culture, studies on creativity

The Workshop will start with a welcoming event in the evening of the 4th of September followed by presentations and discussions on the two subsequent days.

Conference language: English.

SUBMISSION OF PAPERS

The extended abstract (500-700 words) should provide a concise and informative summary of your research, covering the following elements: introduction, clearly stating the research question, methodology and data, and key findings.

Deadline for submitting extended abstracts, as e-mail attachments (pdf, word) to Juan Prieto-Rodriguez [juanprieto@uniovi.es]: February 15th, 2024.

Authors will be notified regarding a conditional acceptance or rejection by March 15th, 2024.

The acceptance will be made conditional on submitting draft papers and on the registration to the conference at its official webpage, by June 15th, 2024.

ACCOMODATION AND FEES

The reduced fee for participation in the Workshop is €170 for ACEI members (to join the Association for Cultural Economics International, you can visit culturaleconomics.org/join) and PhD students. The standard fee is €300,¹ which includes one year's membership to the ACEI.

The fee will include a welcome reception, two lunches, coffee breaks and an evening dinner as well as the participation in the social programme. Accommodation and travel costs are not included in the conference fee and should be arranged individually.

¹ The fee is a preliminary estimate and can be subject to slight change depending on the final number of participants to the Workshop.
